

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 15, to Saturday July 19, 1800.

St. James's, July 16, 1800.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted by His Excellency the Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary, are impelled by the late atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Life, which, by the Providence of God, has happily proved abortive, to renew our Assurances of unaltered Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Government and illustrious House, but above all to your Majesty's Royal Person, to which we are devoted by every Tie of Duty, Gratitude, and Affection.

Deeply sensible of all the Benefits which we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Administration, we consider the Safety of your Majesty and the Welfare of your People as inseparably connected one with the other; and whilst we look back with mingled Horror and Indignation at the late most wicked and abominable Attempt to deprive us of the valued Pledge of so many Blessings, we offer up to the Almighty Disposer of all Events our humble and earnest Supplications, that it will please Him to continue his Mercies to these Nations, by shielding from all Danger a Life so inestimable in its Value to every loyal Member of the British Empire, and preserving to us long, in unabated Happiness and Prosperity, the common Father of all his Subjects of every Class and Description.

Deign, Sire, to receive these, the genuine Effusions of the Heart, from those who justly estimate your Majesty's public and private Virtues, and who are ever ready to defend your Majesty's Life, against all Enemies and Traitors, at the Peril of their own.

L. Archer Butler, High Sheriff.

Clonmell, July 4, 1800.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leitrim, humbly present to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late most atrocious Attempt on your sacred Person.

Unalterably attached to your Royal Person, and grateful for the Blessings we enjoy under your mild Government, we acknowledge with the warmest Gratitude the Interposition of Divine Providence in your Protection, and offer up our most fervent Prayers that the same Providence may continue its Guard over a Life so invaluable to this Country.

Signed in Name of the County,

Duke Crofton, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cavan.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cavan, deeply impressed with a Sense of the gracious Protection extended by Divine Providence over the British Empire, acknowledge with humble and pious Gratitude the signal Mark of His Favor, manifested in the Interposition to save your Majesty's Life from intended Assassination.

Our Experience of the Happiness derived to all the Subjects of your Majesty's Dominions, by the mild and lenient Exercise of your Sway, gives us a deep Interest in whatever may affect the Life and Ease of a Prince who is so truly the Father of his People.

We shall, therefore, never cease to pray that the same Guardian Power which has rescued your Majesty already in so many Instances from imminent Risk, may continue to exert its Influence for the further Protection of your Majesty, and the Happiness and Prosperity of your People.

James Sanderson, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Down.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Down, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty the Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government, and to express our Indignation at the late atrocious Attempt against the Life of a Sovereign, no less distinguished for a sacred Regard for the Duties of his exalted Station than for the Exercise of the private Virtues wherein he has afforded so bright an Example to his Subjects.

Deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government, and of the many Proofs which we have experienced of your paternal Regard for your Subjects of Ireland, we pray that the Almighty will continue to preserve your invaluable Life, granting you a long and prosperous Reign over an happy and grateful People.

Signed by Order,

Savage Hall, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Longford, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from the Attack of an impious Assassin.

With unfeigned Gratitude we acknowledge the Goodness of that Providence whose Hand was extended to preserve thy sacred Person, trusting that the Merits of your Majesty's Life, spent in the Practice of Religion and Virtue, (so eminently conspicuous to all the World,) may, through the Aid of the Almighty, secure your Majesty from any future Attack.

Grateful for your Majesty's paternal Care, and Solicitude for the Welfare and Prosperity of your Subjects, we humbly implore that your Majesty's exemplary Virtues may be crowned with long and happy Years, amidst the Praise and Acclamations of a fond and loyal People. W. Thompson, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Antrim, in your Kingdom of Ireland, duly convened by the High Sheriff at the County Court, on Tuesday the 1st Day of July 1800, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations, and to express our unfeigned Joy for the late providential Deliverance of your Majesty from the atrocious Attempt of a desperate Assassin against your sacred Person.

The calm Magnanimity displayed by your Majesty in the Moment of sudden Danger and Alarm must impress the Minds of your faithful Subjects with Admiration; and we reflect with just Pride, on that generous and noble Courage and Intrepidity possessed by your Majesty which has ever distinguished your illustrious Family, and, by the Exertion of which, our Liberties and glorious Constitution have been preserved inviolate.

We earnestly pray that the Divine Providence may continue to protect a Life so important; a Life marked by every public and private Virtue, by the constant Discharge of every religious and moral Obligation; a Life which should ever be held most dear to all who live under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

Signed in the Name, on the Behalf, and at the unanimous Request of the Meeting.

G. A. McCleverty, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Free Commons, in Behalf of themselves and the loyal Inhabitants of the Antient Borough of Baltinglass, in the County of Wicklow.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Free Commons of the Antient Borough of Baltinglass, in your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, though far removed from your Majesty's sacred Person, are not the less attracted by the many Virtues which have distinguished your Reign, and have drawn to your Majesty the Hearts of even the most remote of your Subjects; we beg Leave to offer up our most unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty on your happy Escape from the wicked Attempt of an Assassin, calculated to deprive us of the signal Blessings it has pleased the Almighty to bestow on us through the Medium of so beloved a Sovereign, Blessings which it is our constant Prayer to the same Almighty King of Kings long to continue to us; and in Support of which, the Constitution and Laws, we took up Arms when lately compelled (by the infuriate Rage of Rebellion, which prevailed with peculiar Violence in our Vicinity) to suspend our corporate Functions, and are determined to defend with our Lives and Fortunes for your Majesty, for your illustrious House, and for the Happiness of ourselves and our Posterity.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Recorder and Town-Clerk to affix our Corporation Seal hereunto, the Thirtieth Day of June, in the Fortieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Hillborough, Sovereign.

Geo. Powell, Recorder.

Tho. Allen, Town-Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Lisburn, in your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, assembled in the Town-House this Third Day of July One thousand eight hundred, beg Leave to express our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy and providential Deliverance from the late daring Attempt of Assassination.

We are deeply impressed with a due Sense of the important Blessings resulting to the Empire at large from your Majesty's mild and truly paternal Government, and of the Magnitude of national Misfortune which must have attended the Success of so atrocious a Design against your Majesty's sacred Person.

It has pleased the Almighty Ruler and Director of all Things, in Mercy to these Kingdoms, to shield your Majesty from the sacrilegious Hand of an impious and deluded Assassin.

May the same Kind Providence long preserve your Majesty's invaluable Life, and continue to your affectionate Subjects the eminently beneficial and instructive Example of those moral and religious Virtues which so conspicuously adorn the venerated Father of his People.

By Order and on Behalf of the Meeting,
William Smith, Sineschal.

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Patrick, Dublin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Dean and Chapter of your Majesty's Cathedral Church of Saint Patrick, Dublin, being capitularly congregated, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on your Preservation from the late daring Attempt made on your sacred Life; and we are happy to learn for the Honor of Human Nature, that it has been found that even a thought of Injury to your sacred Person could only originate in the Loss of that Reason which the Great Creator has given to be the Guide of our Actions.

We beg Leave to join, in common with the Multitude of our Fellow Subjects who have already poured forth their hearty Congratulations on this joyful Occasion, our fervent Prayer for a long Continuance of a Life so justly valuable to every Part of the Empire.

Signed by Order,
W. D. Rooke, Register.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the General Synod of Ulster, gladly embrace the Opportunity afforded us, by our stated Annual Meeting, of expressing to your Majesty our unfeigned Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your just and mild Government.

Your Majesty's Life is deservedly dear to all your Subjects; with its Preservation are closely connected the Existence of regulated Government, the Cause of true Liberty, and the dearest Interests of our common Faith, of the practical Influence of which your Majesty has exhibited in your own Conduct so correct an Example.

It is therefore, with the most lively Sentiments of Gratitude to the Giver and Preserver of Life, that we mix our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations with those of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, on your recent providential Escape from an atrocious Attempt upon your sacred Person.

The Danger to which your Majesty has been exposed heightens our Sense of the Blessings which we have enjoyed under your auspicious Reign, increases our Attachment to your Person, and redoubles our Anxiety for your Safety.

That the Almighty Being, to whom belong the Issues of Life and Death, who, in the Moment of Danger, shielded your Majesty from the Assassin's Arm, may continue to watch over and long preserve your invaluable Life, is our sincere and earnest Prayer.

Done at Lurgan the Twenty-fifth of June One thousand eight hundred.

John Bankhead, Moderator.

St. James's, July 16, 1800.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Consul-General and the Members of the British Factory in Lisbon, humbly request Permission to offer up our heartfelt Congratulations on the late providential Escape of your Royal Person from the traitorous Attempt of a vile Assassin.

Though residing in a distant Country we may seem perhaps to be removed from the immediate beneficent Effects of your Government, we venture to assure your Majesty that, yielding to none of our fellow Subjects in sincere and earnest Wishes for the long Continuance of a Reign which stands unrivalled in Attention to the public Welfare, it is with unfeigned Gratitude to the Almighty that we have now to acknowledge the Preservation of a Sovereign whose Life has uniformly been directed to the Interests of a free, a happy, and a loyal People.

So great indeed, and so general are the Blessings which our favoured Country has had to boast of during your Majesty's long and illustrious Reign, that, even in these Times, it was not to have been expected that a Hand capable of perpetrating such a deed could have been found among us; it was not to have been expected that, even if better Motives failed, there was a Mind sufficiently daring in its Wickedness not to tremble at the Indignation of a provoked People; but without Presumption we may perhaps be permitted to believe that a never-failing Providence has intended to manifest its Protection of our beloved Sovereign, and by calling forth the inward and unanimous Sentiments of our Hearts to give us the Opportunity of proving to surrounding Nations that we are pre-eminent in Loyalty as well as Freedom.

That your Majesty may long be preserved to us we pray most fervently, for to be guided by your paternal Care is the best Security for our Happiness.

Charles Arbuthnot, Consul-General.

PERSONAL LEGACY DUTY.

Stamp-Office, June 23, 1800.

Whereas by an Act passed on the 26th Day of April, in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it is enacted, "That upon every Legacy, Specific or Pecuniary, of the Value of 20 l. or more, given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument of any Person who shall die after the passing of the said Act, out of the Personal Estate of the Person so dying, and also upon the clear Residue of the Personal Estate of every Person who shall so die, whether Testate or Intestate, and leave Personal Estate of the clear Value of 100 l. after deducting Debts, Funeral Expences, and other Charges; there shall be "raised, levied, and collected for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, the several Duties, after the Rates, and in Manner therein particularly mentioned:"

AND WHEREAS HIS MAJESTY'S COMMISSIONERS FOR MANAGING THE STAMP DUTIES have Reason to believe that the Duties which have become payable under the said Act upon Legacies bequeathed, as well as upon the Residue of the Personal Estate and Effects of many Persons who have died since the said 26th Day of April, the Day of passing the said Act, have not been duly answered and paid, and proper Receipts or Discharges given for such Legacies and Personal Estate, according to the said Act; and the said Commissioners have also Reason to believe that the Duties imposed by several other Acts on Legacies, and the Residue of Personal Estate, not subject to the Duties imposed by the said Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, have not been duly answered and paid, and proper Receipts or Discharges given for such Legacies and Personal Estate, according to the said former Acts; and also according to the said Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign: THE COMMISSIONERS THEREFORE DO HEREBY GIVE NOTICE, That Proceedings will be had against all Persons who shall appear to have offended against the said Acts, to recover the Amount of the Duties payable under the said Acts respectively, together with the Penalties incurred by such Persons as shall appear not to have complied with the Terms of the said Acts. AND THE COMMISSIONERS ALSO GIVE NOTICE, That by the said Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, all Persons paying and receiving Legacies or Personal Estate, subject to the said Duties, without receiving and allowing thereout respectively the Duties payable thereon, are chargeable with the said Duties as Debts due to His Majesty, and both Parties are respectively liable to Penalties, in case of Payment of such Legacies without such Receipt or Discharge as required by the Act.

THE COMMISSIONERS ALSO GIVE NOTICE, That by an Act passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, it is enacted, "That every Person who shall administer the Personal Estate of any Person dying after the passing of the said Act, or any Part thereof, without proving the Will of the Deceased, or taking out Letters of Administration of such Personal Estate within Six Calendar Months after the Death of the Person so dying, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of 50 l. to be recovered as therein is mentioned, one Moiety thereof to His Majesty, and the other to the Person who shall sue for the same." By Order of the Commissioners,

J. Brettell, Secretary.

London, July 18, 1800.
